LL B Semester II / Semester VI BLS LLB

Course Objectives

Good speaking and the writing skills are required for the lawyers. The objective of the course is to train the students with skills to draft the essential legal documents. It also intends to acquaint the students with advocacy skills to bridge the gap between theoretical and practical knowledge and to strengthen and enhance their critical thinking. This course intends to impart the essential skills enabling the learner to understand and draft the legal documents that he/she may come across in his/her professional as well as day to-day life. It helps in making aware the learner to the critical rules and principles of drafting legal documents essential not only in professional life but also in day today life.

Bar Council of India has prescribed one course on Drafting, Pleading and Conveyance as a compulsory clinical course. However, to give a winning edge to students of the University there will be three courses on drafting, pleading and conveyancing. This is the first of the three on drafting. Drafting skills are absolutely important for a lawyer and so in-depth coverage and vast coverage of the subject is the primary objective. The purpose of this course is to impart knowledge in drafting simple letters and of documents/pleadings which are related to the courses students study in the first year. The objective of the course is to teach in detail the content and format of the drafting of the items included in the four modules.

Course Outcomes

On successful completion of this course, the students will be able to :

1. Draft with ease the various letters, documents, applications included in the four modules
2. Understand the relevant legal provisions relating to the items included for drafting in this course
3. Identify and correct the errors in the drafting of these items which they learn to draft
