Being "UNITED IN DIVERSITY," we Indians are pleased to be Indian. Although we are all Indians unified under one "TRICOLOUR," one National Anthem, we have varied states, regions, languages, cultures, lingual, and socioeconomic states. Jana Gana Mana and JAI HIND as a single slogan. This has happened as a result of the educational endeavors of mothers, teachers, professors, and society as a whole to create an atmosphere of inclusion for Indians from birth through college and into the workforce. This ADSLC respects the diversity of Indian culture and is equally pleased to be Indian.

Criteria 7:1:8 (A)

Criteria 7:1:8 (C)

Institutional Efforts towards inclusive environment for Linguistic Diversities.

Twenty-two languages are recognized by the Indian Constitution as optimal languages. One of the world's most linguistically diverse nations is India. India is home to more than 1,600 different languages and dialects.

Nalanda Law College (ADSLC) admits students solely based on their educational background. Language is never used by ADSLC as a foundation or admissions criterion.

The institutional language in this college is English. The primary languages of communication are Marathi, Hindi, and English. There is, however, no restriction on speaking a particular language.

Hindi Divas is observed on September 14 and Marathi Basha Divas is observed on February 27 in this college.

Criteria 7:1:8 (F)

Institutional Efforts towards inclusive environment for Gender Diversities.

The following are some of the ways the institution has carried out programs for gender balance and equity: - Gender Audit; co-curriculum; curriculum activities; and amenities for women on campus.

ADSLC offers amenities for women, including a common room for girls, coed seating areas, coed libraries, CCTV surveillance, security personnel, dormitories, vending machines for sanitary napkins, equal opportunities for all college events, including gymkhanas, sports, cultural, research, academics, NSS, social activities, and various college committees.

Criteria 7:1:1

This tool evaluates and monitors the degree to which gender equity has been institutionalized inside organizations. Policies, programs, projects, the supply of programmed structures, and processes are all included. The college makes a constant effort to assess how its planned and ongoing initiatives may affect gender parity. It improves the organization's overall ability to assess its operations from a gender viewpoint and pinpoint its advantages and disadvantages.

The significance of the Gender Audit:

One approach to gender mainstreaming is the Gender Audit. Organizations can detect the gender pattern with the aid of a gender audit. Understanding gender makeup, structure, and processes is beneficial. It promotes better mutual understanding, the flow of ideas, and the contests and skill development needed to bring about societal change.

Criteria 7:1:8 (I)

Concluding description in 500 words.

The ADSLC, reflecting the views of the nation as a whole, accepts the motto 'Unity in Diversity' with pride. Under the Tri-colour flag, India, a country with many states, languages, cultures, and socioeconomic classes, unites with the national anthem Jana Gana Mana and the motto JAI HIND. As a College, ADSLC takes pleasure in creating a welcoming atmosphere that values and honors the many diversity that make being Indian unique.

The way the ADSLC celebrates many cultural activities demonstrates how vibrant its culture is. The institute features cultural songs from a variety of linguistic origins, including Bengali, Punjabi, Kashmiri, Adivasi, Tribe - Dhana Gori, Koli, Gujarati, Lavani, Bengali, and many more. It also hosts group dances that reflect various dance traditions along with fashion shows. This indicates a dedication to valuing and presenting the diverse cultural tapestry that enriches the fabric of the nation.

The policies regarding admittance further demonstrate ADSLC's dedication to diversity. The institute does not use regional status as a criterion for admission and invites students from any part of Maharashtra or India. This inclusive approach fosters an environment that respects and acknowledges the various customs and celebrations across the nation. It includes observing and celebrating regional festivals such as the Ganesh Festival, Onam, Deepawali, Navaratri, Gudi Padwa, Vaishakhi, Ugadi, Maker Sankranti, Christmas, and more.

At ADSLC, language—a vital component of India's diversity—is treated with tact. Although Marathi, Hindi, and English are the main languages used within the university, there are no limitations on the use of any other language. Events like Marathi Basha Divas and Hindi Divas highlight the institute's recognition of language diversity.

Holidays like Christmas, Eid, Raksha Bandhan, Deepawali, and the anniversary of Shivaji Maharaj's birth all demonstrate ADSLC's dedication to promoting national harmony.

These gatherings provide a forum for valuing and embracing the shared diversity that exists within the student body.

ADSLC follows government regulations and reserves 50% of admissions for students from socioeconomically disadvantaged sectors in recognition of the need for socioeconomic balance. Surprisingly, the institute admits more than 70–80% of students from these sections, exceeding this criteria.

The institute's gender audits, curriculum activities, and facilities specifically designed for women are examples of its dedication to gender equity and balance. ADSLC offers facilities such as coeducational dining areas, libraries, hostels, sanitary napkin dispensing machines, CCTVs for security, ladies' common areas, and equal participation platforms in a range of college activities.

By providing ramps, rails, elevators, special restrooms, tactile pathways, and other amenities, ADSLC extends its inclusion to students with physical limitations. From entrance to studies and exams, the institution guarantees an approachable atmosphere.

Additionally, ADSLC accommodates learners of all mental capacities, including advanced, slow, and overage learners. The institute has a mentor-mentee program in which accomplished students guide their peers, fostering an environment that caters to each student's unique learning needs.

To put it simply, ADSLC is a shining example of inclusivity; it embodies the idea of 'Unity in Diversity' and fosters a peaceful atmosphere that honors the many aspects of Indian identity.
